YOUR CONNECTIONS

Munich — TRAIN — Nuremberg — TRAIN — Bamberg

1 Munich → Nuremberg

Departure around 7 am · change in Nuremberg

Take regional trains via Nuremberg. Use a Bayern-Ticket (weekdays from 9 am; weekends from midnight) or a Deutschland-Ticket.

2 Nuremberg → Bamberg

Arrive in Bamberg before 11 am

Change in Nuremberg for a regional train to Bamberg. Allow about three hours from Munich each way.

3 Into the old town

11 am–noon · suggested

Walk about 20–25 minutes from the station into the centre or take a city bus. The cathedral and rose garden are uphill.

4 Domplatz & the Rose Garden

Noon–2 pm · suggested, including lunch

Visit the cathedral and Obere Pfarre. The free rose garden behind the New Residence has views across the rooftops.

5 The water & Klein-Venedig

2–4 pm · suggested

From the island town hall, Altes Rathaus, walk to the former fishermen’s houses of Klein-Venedig beside the river.

6 Rauchbier & the train home

4–5:15 pm beer / break · depart 6 pm · Munich before 9 pm

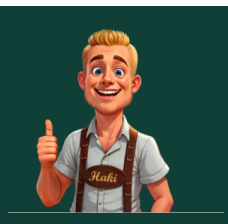

Take a break for smoked beer, then return to the station. Travel back to Munich on regional trains via Nuremberg.

> Tickets: On a weekday, a 7 am departure is before Bayern-Ticket validity. For a trip today, use another valid ticket, such as a Deutschland-Ticket.

Haki tip — leave earlier than you think.

Choose your return train in advance. After your beer break, leave time to walk back to the station for a departure around 6 pm.

Visit: 6 April 2022. Journey times are approximate, confirmed by Martin.
Stops from 11 am to 5:15 pm are suggested, not a record of the visit. Check current connections.
