Haki Travels
TRAVEL GREENER, EXPLORE DEEPER

TOWN DAY TRIP · FROM MUNICH

Mittenwald

Painted houses, violins and a little time to wander.

Munich → Mittenwald · about 2 hours

Take a regional train. A Bayern-Ticket covers the journey; on weekdays it is valid from 09:00.

Painted facades & St. Peter and Paul

Wander through the centre, look up at the painted houses and stop by the church.

Geigenbaumuseum · admission €5.50

Discover the town's violin-making tradition, then pause by the stream or find a café.

Haki tip — give the town a proper afternoon.

Allow at least two unhurried hours for the centre, longer for the museum and a café. After the Karwendelbahn, I wished I had left myself more time.

Read my Mittenwald story and practical tips → hakitravels.com

Allow around half a day in town · Timing is a planning guide.
Check trains and museum opening hours before you go. Checked 9 Oct 2026.

Save this · Follow @hakitravels

TRAVEL GREENER, EXPLORE DEEPER
hakitravels.com