FIELD ITINERARY · CITY DAY

One day in Munich

Old town, a beer garden and room to wander.

CITY TRANSPORT · ZONE M	GLOCKENSPIEL	GETTING AROUND
€10.10 / day	11:00 · 12:00	Walk + tram

YOUR DAY IN MUNICH

Stachus — WALK / TRANSIT — Marienplatz — WALK / TRANSIT — Wiener Platz — WALK / TRANSIT — English Garden — WALK / TRANSIT — Nymphenburg

1 Stachus → Frauenkirche → Marienplatz

Morning · Glockenspiel at 11:00 or 12:00

Walk through Karlstor into the old town. Pop into Frauenkirche, then catch the bells at Marienplatz.

2 Viktualienmarkt + Asamkirche

Late morning · market stalls Monday–Saturday

Pick up a pretzel at the market, then make time for Asamkirche. Its small entrance hides a wonderfully ornate interior.

3 Lunch at Hofbräukeller

Midday · Wiener Platz

Peek into Hofbräuhaus if you like, then head to Hofbräukeller for lunch. On a warm day, find a seat under the chestnut trees.

4 Eisbach + Monopteros

Afternoon · English Garden

Stop by the Eisbach, then walk up to Monopteros for the skyline. Leave time to sit down rather than racing through the park.

5 Nymphenburg palace park

Late afternoon · tram to Schloss Nymphenburg

Take public transport across town for the canals and gardens. Check the park gates before planning an evening here.

6 Choose your finish

Nymphenburg or Olympiaberg

Stay for the evening light before the park closes. If you still have energy, choose Olympiaberg for sunset instead.

City transport: single-day ticket, Zone M, €10.10 for one person aged 15+. Already have a Deutschland-Ticket? Use that. Airport travel needs additional zones.

Haki tip — keep Asamkirche, skip the rush. You do not need every stop. Pick one evening finish. Pack at least 1 L of water, €50 cash and 2 × €0.50 + 2 × €1 for toilets.

Suggested order, not a timed tour · Checked 9 Oct 2026.
Glockenspiel also at 17:00 March–October; no performance on Good Friday.
Nymphenburg main park gate closes at 18:00 / 20:00 / 21:30, depending on season.
