FROM MUNICH TO THE CASTLES

Munich — REGIONAL TRAIN — Füssen — BUS 73 / 78 — Hohenschwangau — WALK / SHUTTLE — Castle — WALK — Alpsee

1 Munich → Füssen → Hohenschwangau

Leave early · allow for the train-to-bus connection

Take a regional train to Füssen, then bus 73 or 78. Use a Deutschland-Ticket or Bayern-Ticket; check the connections for your date.

2 Up to the castle

On foot: 30–40 min uphill · ~1.5 km

Or take the shuttle from P4: €5 return per person. It stops above the castle; you still walk about 15 minutes steeply downhill.

3 Your booked castle tour

~30 min · arrive for the time on your ticket

Book officially and allow time for the climb. Inside, you follow your scheduled guided tour.

4 The Marienbrücke view

Before or after the tour · check access first

Fit the bridge around your entry time. Expect a queue; snow or ice can close it even when castle tours are running.

5 Slow down at Alpsee

A lakeside break · boat hire is optional

In the operating season, boats cost €15 per 30 min for up to four people, cash only. Leave enough time to paddle back.

6 Hohenschwangau → Füssen → Munich

Check the return bus and train before you set off

Bus 73 or 78 to Füssen, then train to Munich. Visit Füssen only if you have time.

Castle adult entry: €21 + €2.50 online fee. Train/bus tickets are separate. Bayern-Ticket weekdays from 09:00. The €5 return shuttle is separate and needs cash.

Haki tip — add a second castle. If you have time, walk up to Hohenschwangau Castle too. Its courtyard needs no ticket; an interior tour is charged separately. Two castles in one outing.
